

Gregory Aguilar

Greg was born and raised in Houston and has lived in the surrounding areas. He is a child of God, a husband to his wonderful wife of thirty years, Ronna and a father to his wonderful son Jarrad. His love for art began in grade school under the influence of his art teacher Mrs. Anna Luna. He has been painting consistently for more than 20 years. He also enjoys collecting rocks and minerals, listening to music, and running.

His purpose for painting is to glorify God and use it as a platform to share the Gospel with others. To God be the Glory!

Greg is self-taught and works primarily in acrylics and mixed mediums. His favorite subjects are flowers and landscapes. He also enjoys experimenting in abstract art.

Currently Greg splits his time between his job in Fort Worth and his home in Montgomery with Ronna and their dog Tucker.

Greg displays his work at the Downtown Art Gallery in Brenham, Texas and is a member of the Brenham Fine Art League.

IG aguilar.greg