

Evonne Alford Sturm

Evonne Alford Sturm grew up in the days of innocence in Caldwell, TX. Responsibility came early to Evonne with older parents and chores. Her mind always saw things differently, a gift from her father. Music was the center of Evonne's creativity early in life; however, she didn't discover craft projects and art until her mid-twenties. Evonne Began studying art seriously along with raising a child and working full-time. She learned the rules from several teachers, and then began breaking them every way she could imagine. Evonne loves repurposing, reclaiming, and rethinking and in business, found this to be an important trait as well as in my art.
