

Tammy L Plumer

TLplumer is an emerging artist, working primarily in watercolor. She often employs bold colors which is unconventional in traditional watercolor; thus, has become known for her use of vivid and contrasting colors. With her passion in watercolor, Tammy's oil paintings often reveal a watercolor quality and movement which is rare in this medium. Painting from the heart, Tammy's selection of color and subjects creates an identifiable mood for the collector.

A true Texas girl, Tammy grew up in East Texas on a working cattle ranch where her love for the outdoors was nurtured through her daily chores as well as the landscape that surrounded her.

Tammy has stayed true to her love for the outdoors and it's represented in the themes in her artwork.

Surrounded by the Texas landscape, Tammy now resides in Bellville, Texas with her husband and their two dogs, Captain and Roz. Her work may be found in private collections throughout the United States and in the Downtown Art Gallery in Brenham, Texas and other private sales.
